| Defendant. |) | |

OPINION AND ORDER

This matter is before the court on an objection to a Report and Recommendation submitted by Magistrate Judge Roger B. Cosbey on May 18, 2010. The defendant, Kevin J. Blevins (“Blevins”) filed his objection on May 27, 2010.

For the following reasons, the objection will be denied and the Report and Recommendation will be adopted.

Discussion

On April 21, 2010, Blevins filed a “Request for Complete Records” in support of his appeal to the Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals. On April 22, 2010, this court entered an order referring this case to Magistrate Judge Cosbey. On May 18, 2010, Magistrate Judge Cosbey submitted a Report and Recommendation that Blevins’ request be denied. The basis of Magistrate Judge Cosbey’s ruling was that for the most part, Blevins wants documents that are generally unnecessary to an appeal.

In his objection to the Report and Recommendation, Blevins simply asserts that “a logical conjecture can be assured that the record contains evidence of prosecutorial misconduct, fraud, fraudulent concealment and other plain prejudicial errors of law.” However, Blevins does not explain how he arrived at this “logical conjecture”.

Accordingly, the Report and Recommendation will be adopted as an order of the court.

Conclusion

On the basis of the foregoing, Magistrate Judge Cosbey’s Report and Recommendation [DE 121] is hereby ADOPTED.

Entered: June 15, 2010.
